WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1947.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1992.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

CAN'T FIND SHORT STREET.

I s'pose there is a Santa Claus
That brings them pretty toys
An' candy 'n' mince pies 'n' things
To lots o' little boys.
But where we live down here, I guess
Is sort of off his beat;
I'm pretty certain, anyway,
He never found Short street.

He goes around to all the stores,
An' fills 'em full o' things
Like sleds, an' skates, an' railroad cars.
The kind he always brings;
An' then he seems to lose the way
To our house. Ah! it's queer
That all the time he's come to town
He's never been down here?

I asked my mother if I might
Go wait for him uptown.
An' tell him that the boys I know
Invites him to come down;
That she just sort o' choked an' coughs
An' then she looks away
An' says, "He'll find us out, I guess
An' visit us some day."

An' yet I've been a-waitin' here—
So long that I don't b'lieve
I'll ever see him come at all
On any Christmas Eve.
I'm goin' to ask Tom Senteney, if
He sees him on his beat,
He'll just go out an' speak to him
An' point him to Short street.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Have a look at Ray's Xmas pipes.

See Gerbrich about Piano for Christmas.

A drove of 180 turkeys came in with the snow yesterday.

The Westbound C. and O. Fast Flyer was two hours late this morning.

Dr. J. B. Tunnice and family have taken up their residence in the St. Charles Hotel.

Mr. Carl Wagner, the clever operator at the Western Union Telegraph Office, is taking grave chances in going about in this kind of weather with a severe case of mumps.

Mr. John H. Murray, of Murray & Thomas, will leave in a few days for Washington, where he goes to place a handsome memorial at the grave of the late Mrs. Matthew Markland of this city, who sleeps in beautiful Arlington.

The weather yesterday morning was variable—rain, snow and sleet alternating. The day throughout was disagreeable and naughty. Few pedestrians braved the inclement weather and in consequence trade was dull and listless.

Samuel Pearce, colored, aged 58, died at his home in Washington yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 2 o'clock from the M. E. Church, with services by the Rev. Pyle. Interment in Washington Cemetery.

An impression prevails with a few people here that Mr. A. D. Bradley was the party implicated in the shortage at the Singer Sewing Machine Company's office in this city. Such is not the case. Mr. Bradley is still connected with the firm and retains the implicit confidence of his employer.

If you are looking for Xmas presents you have what you want. See our Signet Rings, Watch Chains and Lockets; Neck Chains, Cuff Buttons and Tie Holders, Brooches, Watches, Diamond Rings, Studs, Scarf Pins, in fact, everything in the line of Gold and Silver. LOOKING AHEAD

Probable Official Make-Up of New Board of Education

The weather prognosticator sometimes hits the mark but frequently is out of his bearings. Now there is nothing like being a seer, and THE LEDGER, to be up with the times, keeps one in stock.

The coffee grounds in the cup foreshadow that in the reorganization of the Board of Education the officers will line up as follows—

President—Roe Nesbitt.
Vice-President—George Schwartz.
Secretary—Fred Thomas.
Treasurer—Robert A. Cochran

Now watch which way the cat jumps, and see if the above prediction is not a correct horoscope of the situation.

If you want inside information, consult the columns of THE LEDGER, and you get it hot off the wire.

BIG FOX DRIVE

Several Colonels From Maysville Will Take a Hand

The most exciting and exhilarating sport is that of a fox drive, and the biggest thing of the kind will be given by the Huntington Township Fox Drivers' Association New Year's Day. From two to three thousand will join in the chase of sly Reynard.

The chase will be made on foot, guns and dogs barred.

The township will be encircled and the drive will center on the Zweigart farm one mile below Aberdeen.

There are eight divisions, the seventh being commanded by C. F. Zweigart, who has appointed the following Colonels from this side of the drink—John Duley, President of the Board of Trade; Harry C. Curran, Secretary of the Board of Education; City Clerk-elect, James W. Outten; Gordon Sulser and Joe Crawford.

That it will be a decided success is evident from the fact that they have come to this city for our Mr. Duley, who is a success in whatever field he may employ his energy.

It promises to be a gala day, and a large crowd from this side will surely be on hand.

Even though the Louisville folk have "stolen my thunder" in the movement to erect a statue to the author of "My Old Kentucky Home," I hope they will permit me to contribute a mite to the fund.

GOVERNOR HOCH, in a public speech, said the Standard Oil Company was robbing Kansas people of $22,000,000 yearly. He says it pays too little for the oil it buys from the producers of that state. By all means make Uncle Joux whack up; and then the poor widow, who can't afford gas or electricity, will have to pay something like the old prices for oil, 18 to 20 cents a gallon, instead of 9 to 10 cents as now.

THE Law Reform Committee of the Kentucky State Bar Association has drafted some important changes in existing laws, which will be presented to the coming Legislature and their adoption urged. Probably the most important change which will be presented, at least from a public standpoint, will be the bill making the solicitation of business by lawyers a misdemeanor. This bill will not make public advertisement an offense, but is directed at lawyers commonly known as "shysters," "ambulance chasers," and similar names. It is claimed by members of the Committee that many lawyers seek employment by seeking the victim of each accident as soon as the accident has happened, with whom they make arrangement to file suits for damages, with the promise to take a percentage of the Jury award for their fee.

It is estimated that it will cost $804,296,475 to run Uncle Sam's automobile next year.

PEERING Northward through the so-called "street" created alongside the new Government Building, the aspect is exceptionally fine. Take a look.

THE fellow was probably joking when he said the Maysville and Flemingsburg Automobile Company would sell Commuters Tickets between the Business District and the new Postoffice.

CHARLES FRANCIS MURPHY, the leader of Tammany Hall, has some practical ideas as to municipal ownership. He bases his objections on the lack of elasticity in the plan. He doubts that any city would be willing to take the large risk; that scientific improvements will nullify in a few years what might today be regarded as up-to-date.

Taxpayers would be up in arms, he says, if, for example, it became necessary to wipe out a municipal investment and install expensive new methods to keep pace with the march of invention.

Mr. MURPHY referred to New York's old horse car lines, which, under private ownership, were replaced by cable cars, these in turn giving way to the trolley. All these added charges, aggregating millions of capital, were patiently borne by private investors.

Mr. MURPHY's argument is that, once a city becomes committed to a private ownership plan, taxpayers will object to a change.

Help For the Poor

NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS MADE

Several Specify Amounts For the Purchase of Coal

Send Cash to The Ledger and Donations of Articles as Directed By Ladies in Charge

Not a great deal of time remains for the ladies having the proposed Christmas dinner in charge to solicit aid, and it is hoped that before the time limit, December 18th, the responses will be many and generous.

The undertaking will mean the outlay of a goodly sum, together with large amounts of provisions as heretofore named, and the success of the holiday treat rests upon the generosity of the more fortunate people.

In the published list of cash subscriptions it will be seen that a part is to be expended for coal, and one good lady has provided for the dressing of the tree; but more money is needed for the dinner, and only a few days are left in which to add your mite.

Some of Maysville's best known ladies are in the movement. Mrs. Larry Langefels is Chairman of Committee on Cooked Food; Mrs. Harry B. Owens, Chairman of Committee on Cakes, Fruits and Nuts; Mrs. R. A. Cochran, Chairman of Committee in charge of Tree; Mrs. Elizabeth W. Power is Chairman of Committee on Table appointments.

The dinner is to consist of turkey, chicken, roast beef, potatoes, beans, bread, butter, milk, pickles, cake, fruit, candy and nuts, and is to be served at 1:30 on Christmas Day.

Any supplies left over from the dinner will be distributed to the poor who were not able to attend.

Those who wish to donate milk or butter will please report to Mrs. M. C. Russell.

A list of worthy children must be sent to Miss Amy N. Philetot not later than Sunday afternoon, December 17th.

Notify the ladies that you are willing to help, or send your cash subscription to THE LADIES, and you will enjoy your Christmas all the more.

HONOR LONG DEFERRED

LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL.

The movement to erect a monument to Stephen Collins Foster is late coming, but now that it is actually under way it should meet with hearty encouragement.

The promoters of the project desire to unveil the shaft next June, making the ceremony a feature of the much-talked-of "home-coming week" of former Kentuckians. The appropriateness of dedicating at that time a tribute to the composer of "My Old Kentucky Home" speaks for itself.

To collect the funds and complete the monument within the intervening period requires swift and sustained effort. The leaders and the rank and file should devote just this sort of effort to the enterprise. It deserves the zeal and energetic labor of everybody in Kentucky, although meriting not a whit less the interest and sympathy of all other Americans.

Kentuckians long ago should have done what it is now proposed they shall do. It is not often that a genius arises who can write such songs as those Foster wrote, and there is not another state in the whole Nation which has been the inspiration of such a song as "My Old Kentucky Home." Other ballads will come and go, but this will live until the end of days. You can hear it in the restaurants and halls of London, the cafes of Paris and the gardens of Berlin. You can hear it in the Orient and the Antipodes. Throughout the civilized world "My Old Kentucky Home" is known and loved. To foreigners it is one of the representative songs of America; to Americans in foreign lands it tells a message of home. And to Kentuckians—well, to Kentuckians it brings memories and arouses sentiments that only Kentuckians with Kentucky hearts can ever know.

Foster wrote "Old Folks at Home," "Old Black Joe," "Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground," "Nellie Was a Lady," and other household songs, and these will endear him to the multitudes of many generations, but that he wrote that beautiful and imperishable ballad of Kentucky is enough to crown him with the affection of all our people. By all means, a monument to Stephen Collins Foster.

SAN TOY.

An important event in our local theatrical season will be the coming of "San Toy," which has just entered upon its fourth year in America. The organization includes a host of talented people. The piece is in two acts, and after a few bars of dreamy music the curtain rises disclosing a chorus languorously singing during their labors until the arrival of "Li," a crafty Chinaman, then many complications begin. It is one of the cleanest, jolliest and liveliest comedies that has enlivened the musical comedy world. The attraction appeals to all that is refined.

Maysville Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It

After the reader has read the public statement of this representative citizen of Maysville given below, he must fairly, squarely and honestly come to this conclusion. A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the party in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work under similar circumstances. Read this:
M. C. Chisholm, Constable in District No. 2, living at 343 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:
"Doan's Kidney Pills positively cured me of kidney trouble, and I do not hesitate to give them the strongest kind of recommendation. I had been troubled with too frequent action of the kidney secretions and it disturbed my rest nights. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore and I noticed an improvement in my condition from the start. My trouble was soon entirely cured. This was some five years ago, and I have had no return of it since. Anyone suffering from difficulties arising from disordered kidneys can make no mistake by using Doan's Kidney Pills."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
